Rights Under State Law (California)

If you are a resident of California, you may have rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) regarding your personal information, as described in this section.

What is Covered by this Section of the Privacy Policy?

Much of the personal information that Advisor Group collects is exempt from the rights provided by CCPA. The rights under the CCPA described below do not apply, for instance, to personal information collected, processed, sold or disclosed pursuant to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and its implementing regulations or the California Financial Information Privacy Act. As a general matter, those laws apply to nonpublic personal information about individuals who obtain financial products or services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. The CCPA also exempts from most of its provisions, including the privacy policy notification requirements, certain information processed in the business-to-business context (e.g., information about an individual acting in his or her capacity as a representative of a company) and information about employees, job applicants, and contractors when processed in that context. This section (6.B) therefore does not cover information falling within the scope of these exemptions or to which the CCPA’s relevant provisions do not apply.

Access and Deletion Rights Under the CCPA

i. Right to Request Disclosure of Personal Information We Collect and Share (Access Rights)

Individuals whose personal information is covered by the CCPA have a right to request that Advisor Group provide the following information:

The business or commercial purposes for which Advisor Group collected and/or sold the personal information

The categories of any third parties with which Advisor Group shared the Personal information

The specific pieces of personal information Advisor Group collected over the past year

Such individuals may also submit a request for the following additional information:

The categories of personal information, if any, Advisor Group has sold about you, categories of third parties to which Advisor Group sold that personal information, and the categories of personal information sold to each type of third party

The categories of personal information that we have disclosed for a business purpose

Our responses to any of these requests will cover the 12-month period preceding our receipt of the request.

ii. Right to Request the Deletion of Personal Information We have Collected from You (Deletion Rights)

Individuals whose personal information is covered by the CCPA may also request that we delete personal information covered by the CCPA that we maintain. Upon receiving and appropriately verifying such a request, Advisor Group will delete the personal information, unless that information is necessary for Advisor Group to: complete the transaction for which we collected the information; provide you with a good or service you requested; perform a contract Advisor Group entered into with you; detect security incidents; maintain the functionality or security of Advisor Group's systems; comply with or exercise rights provided by the law; or use the information internally in ways that are comparable with the context in which you provided the information to Advisor Group or that are reasonably aligned with expectations based on your relationship with Advisor Group, among other things. We may also retain information where another exception to the deletion requirements in Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.105(d) applies. Please note that if you request that your personal information be deleted, you may no longer be able to access or use certain parts of the Sites.

iv. Our Processes for Responding to CCPA Requests

Verifying requests: Depending on the nature of your request, we may ask you for additional information to verify your request and identity and a declaration attesting to your identity, signed under penalty of perjury.

Timeline for responding: We will respond to requests for access or deletion as soon as practicable and, in any event, generally within 45 days after receiving your request. We may extend this period to 90 days in some cases.

We are committed to complying with the law. If you exercise any of the rights explained in this policy, we will continue to treat you fairly.

Advisor Group is committed to the security of your personal information. To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we implement and maintain reasonable security measures that are intended to maintain the confidentiality of personal information. However, no security measures are infallible and we cannot and do not guarantee that our safeguards will always work. Please always use caution when transmitting information, including over the internet, use strong and unique passwords that you do not also use on other online services, and notify us immediately of any concerns regarding your account or passwords.

11. International Transfers of Data

We are based in the United States. The information you submit to us and that we collect as a result of using our Sites will be transferred to the United States. By using our Sites, products and services, you consent to the collection, international transfer, storage and processing of your information. If it is illegal to access our Sites or transfer your data to the United States, please do not use our Sites.

12. Third-party Links

Our Sites may contain links to third-party websites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites.
